Old Business

- The Board reviewed information regarding the realignment of New Canada Road that was approved by the Planning Board in a 2019 subdivision plan. No work has been done on this project. The cost of the road construction is estimated between $125,000 and $140,000. Jessica motioned to move forward with the paperwork and legal process of returning New Canada Road to the original layout. Motion seconded by Ruby and passed 3-0.
- Jessica met with Irene Reagan at her home, who has contacted the Selectmen's Office on two occasions this winter about the plowing of Chellis Drive. She believes it is not being done to the standards agreed upon by the Town. Road Agent Cornell also met with her regarding the maintenance of the road. At times there have been vehicles in the way of the truck turnaround. Ms. Reagan indicated to Selectwoman Hatch that everything is fine now.

Selectmen

The Board finalized the Selectmen's report and the dedication for the annual town report.
